

10th Annual Spanish Language Celebration

Latino Americans: History, Culture and Legacy

WEDNESDAY
MARCH 20 Palm Beach Gardens Campus
BioScience Complex • Room SC 127
3160 PGA Blvd.

9:30 am

Welcome/Opening Remarks

Dr. Linda Lebile, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Palm Beach Gardens campus

9:45-10:45 am

Political Crisis in Venezuela: Is a Regime Change Possible?

Dr. Luis Fleischman, Professor of Sociology, PBSC
Author of "Latin America in the Post Chávez Era"

11 am–12:15 pm

The Negotiation of the American Dream in Contemporary Latina Narratives

Dr. Emmanuel Alvarado, Professor of Spanish, PBSC
Jenifer Skolnick, Professor of English, PBSC

Authors of "Neoliberalism and the Negotiation of the American Dream in Contemporary Latina Narratives"

12:30-1:45 pm

The Wall, Immigration, and the American Dream: An Ongoing National Debate

Allen Eney, Moderator, President, Spanish Club
Isabel Castillo, Immigration Attorney
Aileen Josephs, Immigration Attorney
Adonia Simpson, Immigration Attorney

2–3:15 pm

One Foot in and One Foot out: Assimilation and the Performance of Hybrid Identity in Contemporary America

Panel moderator: Dr. Cary High, Professor and Department Chair of Paralegal program
Maria Garcia, Professor of English, PBSC
Angela Allen, Manager of Student Activities, Palm Beach Gardens campus
Eliana Mukherjee, Professor of Education, PBSC
Julicia Vernon, President, Phi Theta Kappa Alpha Gamma Sigma
Sahar Miri, Vice President, Phi Theta Kappa Alpha Gamma Sigma